Where are visitors from?

The average visitor is a Spanish woman between 45 and 55 years old with university studies who came to Barcelona by plane with her family and is staying at a hotel in the city. She is interested in Gaudí and his work and, in addition to the Sagrada Família, she also visits Park Güell and Casa Batlló. She uses the metro to get around the city. It is her first visit to the Temple, she rates it a 9 and would highly recommend it to others. She rates her overall satisfaction with the visit 9.2 out of 10.

04.

01

Completion of two of the towers of the Evangelists, Luke and Mark, topped with the figures of the tetramorph: an ox and a lion, respectively.

02

Construction of the Chapel of the Assumption and the cloister connecting it to the sacristy on Carrer de Provença.

03

Installation of the eighth of twelve levels on the tower of Jesus Christ.

04

Works to restore and preserve the Nativity façade and the cloister of Our Lady of the Rosary.

WE ARE

THE PEOPLE

SANT JORDI

For Sant Jordi, 141 people from Amics de la Gent Gran and care homes in the neighbourhood created an art installation with plexiglass roses and 1,048 people named Jordi, Jordina, Jorge or Georgina visited the Basilica for free.

ACCESSIBILITY

We are continuing works to improve physical accessibility at the Temple by getting rid of architectural barriers. We added new resources that improve the sensory accessibility of the museum, specifically a tactile model of the tower of the Virgin Mary, in collaboration with the ONCE Foundation.

CONCERT FOR PEACE

We organised a concert for peace with several choirs made up of Ukrainian refugees, with 550 people in the audience. We offered tours and workshops for refugees from Ukraine, with 357 adults and children participating, and 700 other people from this group visited the Basilica.

ILLUMINATIONS

We did charity illuminations for three causes: International Fibromyalgia, Chronic Fatigue Syndrome and other Central Sensitisation Syndromes Awareness Day, Awareness Day for Rubinstein-Taybi Syndrome, and the World Pneumonia Awareness Campaign.

COLLABORATION

We strengthened our relationship and collaborations with neighbourhood organisations and, as per the agreement with the Barcelona City Council, contributed €2.5 million this year.

OPEN DOORS DAYS

With the positive response to the Open Doors Days for the Mercè festivities, we extended this initiative to the celebrations for Barcelona's co-patron saint, Santa Eulàlia, for the first time. So, we gave out 6,000 tickets for the Santa Eulàlia Open Doors Days and 15,000 for the Mercè days.

21,000

CONCERTS

Continuing in the line of bringing culture to the people, 4,503 people attended the Easter and Christmas concerts by Orquestra Simfònica del Vallès and the children's carolling featuring choirs and musicians from municipal music schools.

4,503

ACTIVITIES

The family activities returned, and 2,113 children and their guardians took part in children's workshops and activities for Easter Week and Christmas.

2,113

STUDENTS

We welcomed 68,170 students from national and international schools and universities through our educational visits.

68,170

CHILDREN'S FESTIVAL

For the first time, we attended the Children's Festival in Barcelona, offering a workshop that 934 children and their guardians took part in.

934

SOCIAL VISITS

Continuing our programme of social visits, we hosted 402 tours with a total of 5,502 people from vulnerable groups. These visits increased exponentially from 2021.
